From Tuesday October 17, to Saturday October 21, 1749.

Dublin, October 12.

ON Tuesday the 10th Instant, the Parliament having met according to the Prorogation, his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant went in State to the House of Peers, and being seated on the Throne with the usual Ceremony, his Excellency sent for the Commons, and made a Speech to both Houses, who unanimously resolved upon humble and dutiful Addresses to his Majesty, which were this Day presented to his Excellency.

His Excellency William Earl of Harrington, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland, his Speech to both Houses of Parliament, at Dublin, on Tuesday the Tenth Day of October 1749.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

HIS Majesty having honoured me with his Commands to meet you again in Parliament, it is with great Pleasure that I congratulate you on the Re-establishment of the publick Tranquillity; and I am persuaded, that you are duly sensible of his Majesty's Wisdom and Goodness, in procuring the honourable Peace which has been happily concluded since the last Session, to the manifest Advantage of his Subjects of this Kingdom, in common with those of his other Dominions.

In order to contribute to the more effectual securing the Continuance of that inestimable Blessing, his Majesty has judged it necessary to regulate his Forces in this Kingdom, in such a Manner, as to be speedily prepared, in all Events, to defeat any Attempt which may be made to disturb our present Happiness.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the several Accounts and Estimates to be laid before you, and have a particular Satisfaction in acquainting you, that I have nothing in Command from his Majesty to ask but the usual Supplies.

The Batteries which have been thought necessary for the Defence of the Harbour of Corke, are in considerable Forwardness; and a new Disposition of the Barracks, for the more convenient Reception of his Majesty's Troops, and for the publick Security, has been proceeded upon, in pursuance of your Address to me of the last Session, with as much Expedition as the Nature of that Service would admit. An Account of the Expence of each of those Works shall likewise be laid before you.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Encouragement lately given to your Linen Manufacture by the Legislature of Great Britain, calls upon you, in the strongest Manner, to attend to the Advantages of that great Source of national Industry and Wealth: And their favourable Disposition to promote the general Welfare of this Kingdom, must incline you to cultivate, by all suitable Returns, that reciprocal Confidence and Harmony, which will at all Times be found essentially necessary to the Interest of Ireland. Every audacious Attempt to create a Jealousy between the two Kingdoms, and to disunite the Affections of his Majesty's common Subjects, so closely connected by the same civil and religious Interests, must excite the highest Indignation in all true Lovers of their Country.

You have abundant Reason to depend upon the Continuance of his Majesty's Protection and Favour; and your past Conduct leaves no room to doubt, that you will gratefully testify your Loyalty and Duty, by reposing a just Confidence in his Majesty, and exerting a steady Zeal for the Security and Honour of his Government.

Duty and Inclination will, upon all Occasions, equally engage me to concur with you, in every Measure, which may tend to increase the Welfare and Prosperity of this Kingdom.

(Price Four-Pence.)

To

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to embrace this firſt Opportunity of teſtifying our Joy upon the happy Re-eſtabliſhment of the publick Tranquillity; and gratefully acknowlege it the Effect of your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs, under the Divine Aſſiſtance, that we enjoy the ineſtimable Bleſſing of an honourable Peace, which, we truſt, will be effectually ſecured by your Royal Vigilance, and remain a laſting Monument of your Majeſty's paternal Affection to your People.

It will be the moſt acceptable Return to your Majeſty, as well as the beſt Uſe we can make of our preſent Happineſs, to cultivate the Arts of Peace, by a due Attention to encourage Induſtry and improve our Linen Manufacture, the moſt certain Source of national Wealth and Proſperity.

We reflect with Gratitude on the late Continuance of the Britiſh Bounty upon the Exportation of our coarſe Linens. A juſt Senſe of this favourable Diſpoſition in the Legiſlature of Great Britain to promote our Welfare, and of the mutual Advantages which muſt ever ariſe from a good Correſpondence between the two Kingdoms, will ſtrongly bind us to maintain by all ſuitable Methods, that reciprocal Confidence and perfect Harmony, which are ſo manifeſtly conducive to the Peace and Safety of your Majeſty's Government, and ſo eſſentially neceſſary to the Intereſt of Ireland.

We hold ourſelves obliged, as Lovers of our Country, to reſent with the utmoſt Indignation and Abhorrence, every Attempt to raiſe groundleſs Jealouſies between the two Kingdoms, and to diſunite the Affections of your Majeſty's common Subjects, whoſe great Felicity it is to be connected together by the ſame civil and religious Intereſts.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are ready on all Occaſions to demonſtrate our unſhaken Attachment to your Majeſty, by a chearful Concurrence in every Meaſure which can contribute to the Security, Honour, and Eaſe of your Reign.

We eſteem it a ſignal Mark of your Royal Favour, that your Majeſty has been pleaſed to continue the Government of this Kingdom to his Excellency the Earl of Harrington: His Abilities and Inclination to promote your Majeſty's Service, and the Welfare of your faithful Subjects, we have happily experienced, and upon his known Candour we rely for a juſt Repreſentation to your Majeſty of our ever loyal and dutiful Affections.

En. Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Will take the firſt Opportunity to tranſmit this dutiful and loyal Addreſs to his Majeſty.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the glorious Behaviour of your Forces by Sea and Land, which has diſappointed the ambitious Views of your Enemies; and are highly ſenſible of your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Prudence in re-eſtabliſhing the publick Tranquillity by an honourable and advantageous Peace.

The many Proofs we have had of your Majeſty's paternal Care of your Subjects of this Kingdom, give us a firm Perſuaſion that your Majeſty will take all proper Meaſures to ſecure us from any Attempts to diſturb the Continuation of our preſent Happineſs under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government.

The Encouragement lately given to the Linnen Manufacture of this Kingdom, cannot fail of engaging our utmoſt Attention to promote and advance that great Source of national Induſtry and Wealth. We ſhall with great Chearfulneſs lay hold on every Occaſion which may tend to continue a reciprocal Confidence and Harmony between your Majeſty's common Subjects of Great Britain and Ireland, and muſt look with the higheſt Indignation on any audacious Attempt to create a Jealouſy between them, or diſunite their Affections.

And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that from a thorough Conviction of your Majeſty's moſt gracious Favour and Protection, we ſhall at all Times exert our moſt ſteady Zeal for the Security of your Royal Perſon, and chearfully grant ſuch Supplies as ſhall be neceſſary to ſupport your Government with Honour.

E. Sterling,
H. Alcock, } Cler. Dom. Com.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Will take the firſt Opportunity to tranſmit this dutiful and loyal Addreſs to his Majeſty.

To

To his Excellency William Earl of Harrington, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland, the humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our moſt humble Thanks for your Speech delivered from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament; and to congratulate your Excellency on your happy Return to this Kingdom, which has given us the greateſt Joy and Satisfaction, as we eſteem it to be a ſignal Inſtance of his Majeſty's paternal Affection for his People of Ireland.

The eminent Abilities and Integrity with which your Excellency had filled the chief Employments under the Crown, had juſtly raiſed our Hopes and Expectations on your being appointed to this your high Office, nor have our Hopes been vain: For we have ſeen your Excellency maintain the Honour and Intereſt of the Crown with great Dignity, and at the ſame Time conſult and promote the Welfare and Happineſs of this Kingdom with the moſt conſtant Zeal.

The repeated Marks of Protection which your Excellency has been pleaſed to give to the Staple Manufacture of this Country, and the Succeſs attending your generous Endeavours, demand the ſincereſt Returns of Thanks to your Excellency, and of Gratitude to the Britiſh Legiſlature.

We beg Leave to expreſs to your Excellency our moſt dutiful Senſe of his Majeſty's Royal Goodneſs and Favour, and to aſſure your Excellency, that we are truly ſenſible of the Happineſs of our Situation under the Protection of the Crown of Great Britain; that we eſteem the Strength of Great Britain to be our Glory; and that we look upon her true Intereſts as inſeparably connected with thoſe of this Kingdom.

We think ourſelves therefore bound by the moſt ſacred Ties to cultivate all reciprocal Returns of Confidence and Affection between the two Kingdoms; and ſhall always be ready to ſuppreſs every audacious Attempt to ſeparate their common Intereſts.

We have nothing now left to wiſh, but that your Excellency may long continue to cement this happy Union between Great Britain and Ireland, ſo beneficial to both, and on which we are ſenſible that our Peace and Proſperity intirely depend.

To which Addreſs his Excellency was pleaſed to give this Anſwer.

I Return your Lordſhips my ſincereſt Thanks for this moſt affectionate and obliging Addreſs. The good Opinion you are pleaſed to expreſs of my Endeavours for promoting the Intereſts of this Kingdom, gives me the higheſt Satisfaction.

To his Excellency William Earl of Harrington, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, return you our moſt humble Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne.

The Experience we have already had of your Excellency's wiſe and juſt Adminiſtration, gives us a ſtrong and convincing Proof of his Majeſty's Care of his Subjects in this Kingdom, in continuing to us a chief Governor, whoſe Zeal for his Service, and the true Intereſt of all his People, has, in a long Courſe of Years, ſo remarkably diſtinguiſhed him in the higheſt Stations.

We are gratefully affected with the late Encouragement given to our Linen Manufacture, and your Excellency's zealous Attention to our Happineſs in promoting that, our moſt important Intereſt, calls upon us publickly to acknowledge your great and ſignal Services to this Kingdom.

We are highly ſenſible, that the true Intereſt of Ireland is ſo cloſely connected with that of Great Britain, that we ſhall always endeavour to cultivate the moſt firm Union and Harmony between his Majeſty's Subjects of both Kingdoms, and ſhall on all Occaſions uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to diſcourage and diſappoint every audacious Attempt which may be made to foment Jealouſies, or to diſunite their Affections.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Excellency, that as we have the ſtrongeſt Senſe of your repeated good Offices, we ſhall ſhew our Gratitude, and the Confidence we repoſe in you, by contributing, as far as in us lies, to render your Excellency's Government eaſy and honourable.

E. Sterling,
H. Alcock, } Cler. Dom. Com.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Am very much obliged to the Houſe of Commons for this freſh Teſtimony of their Regard and Eſteem; and deſire you will be aſſured of the Continuance of my moſt zealous Endeavours to advance the Welfare of this Kingdom upon all Occaſions.

Dublin,

Dublin, October 12.

Yeſterday being the Anniverſary of his Majeſty's Coronation, the Great Guns were fired in his Majeſty's Park the Phœnix, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garriſon which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks. At Noon there was a numerous Appearance of the Nobility, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, to compliment his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant upon this Occaſion. At Night there was a Play given by his Excellency for the Entertainment of the Ladies; and a Ball at the Caſtle.

Naples, September 27, N. S. The King, on Notice that eleven Algerine Pirates were cruizing off the Iſland of Procida, ordered immediately three Gallies and two Half Gallies to go out in Purſuit of them; and ſent a Detachment of ſeventy Soldiers, and the neceſſary Ammunition and Stores, to reinforce the Caſtles in that Iſland, leſt thoſe Pirates ſhould attempt to make a Deſcent. His Majeſty likewiſe ordered the three Ships of War, St. Charles, la Reine, and Notre Dame de la Conception, to be fitted out and manned with all poſſible Expedition for that Purpoſe, and they now wait only for a fair Wind to put to Sea. A few Days ago a new Ship of War of forty Guns was launched from the Stocks, in the Preſence of their Majeſties, attended by a great Number of the Nobility; on which Occaſion much Miſchief was done by the Ship falling upon the People that were employed, ſeveral of them were killed, and others diſabled. Laſt Week arrived in this City a Daniſh and a Dutch Gentleman, the former with the Character of Conſul from the King of Denmark, and the latter from the King of Pruſſia. On the 12th Inſtant anchored in this Port from Spain, a Shebeck mounted with 26 Guns, which the King cauſed to be purchaſed for four thouſand Dollars, in order to be fitted out as a Cruizer againſt the Barbary Pirates, and as a Model to build others. On the 19th the King, attended by many of the Nobility and the Knights of the Order of St. Gennaro, inveſted the Duke of Bovino with the Enſigns of that Order in the Chapel of the Royal Palace. Fifty Soldiers deſerted on the 22d out of the ſeveral Regiments in Garriſon in this City. The Queen happily advances in her Pregnancy. On the 23d, the King of Spain's Birth-day was celebrated here with the uſual Solemnity; the Foreign Miniſters, Nobility, and military Officers, in their rich Habits, were to pay their Duties to their Majeſties on that Occaſion.

Rome, September 30, N. S. Laſt Week the Pope ordered Count Novara to be releaſed from his Confinement in the Caſtle of St. Angelo. M. Clementi has received Notice, that the King of Spain has appointed him the fourth Counſellor of Caſtille. On the 17th Inſtant, the Secretary of State ſent ſtrict Orders to the Tower-keepers along the Coaſt of the See of Rome, to be very vigilant on account of the Barbary Pirates that are cruizing off theſe Coaſts, leſt they ſhould attempt a Deſcent.

Florence, October 7, N. S. Since the Publication of the Pope's Bull, with a circular Letter from the Archbiſhop to the Clergy, notifying the Abolition of a certain Number of Holy-days, an Edict of the Emperor has been made publick, commanding his Subjects to conform themſelves to this Regulation, under ſevere Penalties to thoſe who ſhall refuſe to comply with it. A few Days ago, M. del Turco, a Florentine Gentleman, and M. Durazzo, a Citizen, the firſt the Treaſurer, and the latter the Book-keeper, of a Bank called Monte di Pieta, who a few Months ſince fled from this City to Venice, having embezzled a large Sum of Money belonging to that Office, were brought here Priſoners; having, at the Requeſt of the Emperor, been delivered up by the Republick of Venice; the former is confined in the Caſtle, and the other in the common Priſon. A Battalion of the Lorrain Regiment of Foot Guards is arrived in this City from Leghorn, having been relieved by another Battalion of the ſame Regiment.

Madrid, October 13. The laſt Letters from Cadiz mention, that the Caracas Expedition goes on but ſlowly; that only four Ships were as yet freighted for that Service, viz. one Iriſh, two French, and one Dutch, and that they were all to be careen'd to make them fit for ſo long a Voyage. That a Regiſter belonging to the Fernandine Company of Seville was arrived in that River from Buenos Aires in Eighty Days, and brought Advice, that two Regiſters were arrived there from Cadiz; that another was almoſt ready to return to Europe; and that two Men of War in the South Sea, bound home from Lima with Treaſure, were detain'd for want of Hands. Their Catholick Majeſties leave this Place on the 16th Inſtant, in order to go to the Eſcurial.
